Section 13107.

If the text exceeds the word limit, the candidate must delete or change a sufficient number of words or sentences, to put the statement within the required word limit before the statement is filed. The candidate should correct any misspellings before the statement is filed.

The submitted statement should be typed. No word will be printed in "ALL CAPS, bold, or underlined. The Registrar of Voters' office provides a form for your signature to comply with the uniform standard.

The statement may include the name, age and occupation of the candidate and a brief description of the candidate's education and qualifications expressed by the candidate himself or herself.

The candidate must sign and date the statement before it is filed. ALL statements are confidential until the expiration of the filing deadline.

The candidate generally pays the cost of the statement and signs a statement form at the time the statement is filed. When the statement is filed, a copy of the signed statement and the signed statement form will be given to the candidate. If the candidate does not file a statement, the lower portion of the agreement form must be signed by the candidate to indicate that the candidate does not want the statement. (Elections Code Section 13307)

CHARGE FOR STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

Before the nomination period opens, the local agency for that district shall determine whether a charge shall be levied against that candidate for the candidate's statement sent to each voter. Such decision shall not be revoked or modified after the seventh (7th) day prior to the opening of the nomination period. A written statement of the regulations with respect to charges shall be provided to each candidate or his/her representative at the time he/she picks up the nomination papers. The following information is furnished in compliance with the above requirement.

- 1- The standard limitation of words for the statement of qualifications for candidates is 200 words. Some districts may allow 400 words. Check with your City.
2. The candidate Pays for the Statement of Qualifications , unless the City has authorized otherwise. Check with your City Clerk.

The estimated amount for the candidate's statement varies by number of registered voters in the City and how many candidates elect to have a statement in the sample ballot. The lower amount is based upon four candidates sharing a page. In the event only one candidate has requested a statement of qualifications, that candidate should expect to be billed the estimated larger amount as a result of no cost sharing.
